

Respect, Diversity & Inclusion

STILL ♦ HR's Respect, Diversity and Inclusion training workshops explore levels of respect being shown and felt within staff groups, and are comprehensive in their coverage of equality law and diversity principles.

Often spearheading our clients drive for culture change, challenging harassment and raising respect, our cost-effective all-staff programmes deliver a consistent organisation-wide message and ensure common understanding of roles, rights and responsibilities.

“ High quality and engaging workshops well received by staff at all levels.

Nikki Dinan, Senior Training & OD Manager,
The Zoological Society of London

Paula Symons

The key content of our all-staff workshops includes:

- Demonstrating the real and tangible benefits of this kind of training for everyone
- Respect within the workplace
- The Equality Act 2010 – the protected characteristics
- Discrimination
- Banter and joking without offence
- Bullying and harassment
- Recognising unconscious bias in yourself and others
- Recognising and challenging unwanted or unlawful behaviours
- Working toward the workplace we want

Workshops That Work – For Everyone

Our workshops are forward-looking and engaging. They involve delegates in describing what workplace they would wish for, and deciding the practical steps necessary to bring about the change. We then lead them through how this will be put into action in the real world back at their workplace.

“ Creates an unthreatening atmosphere that allows people to open up and share.

Pat Vendetti, Director Greenpeace UK
